Jennifer Mueller Chosen for 2011 Class of Most Influential Women

Attorney Jennifer Mueller of Baird, Lightner, Millsap & Harpool P.C. has been selected for the 2011 Most Influential Women Award. This annual honor given by the Springfield Business Journal has been awarded since 2000. An independent panel of judges selected the class of 20 women based on their commitment to improving the Southwest Missouri business, civic and philanthropic communities. Recipients will be honored at an awards luncheon October 21, 2011, and a special publication of Springfield Business Journal will highlight the winners and their contributions to the community.

Jennifer Mueller has been practicing law for over 13 years and has been with Baird, Lightner, Millsap & Harpool P.C. since 2010. In addition to her legal work, Mrs. Mueller also provides employer trainings on the areas of anti-discrimination and harassment, worker compensation and wages, and employment law. Since 1998 Mrs. Mueller has been an Instructor for Webster University, teaching employment law. She is very active in the Springfield community, and currently serves on the Advisory Council for Missouri State University's College of Arts and Letters, and the Ozarks Literacy Council. She has also served on the Board of Directors for Springfield Ballet, Inc, and on the Human Resources Committee for Springfield Little Theatre. Jennifer Mueller is an alumna of Leadership Springfield, Class XVII.

The law firm of Baird, Lightner, Millsap & Harpool congratulates Jennifer Mueller on all of her accomplishments and recognition.
